III. SOME NICE THINGS HAPPENING – (ATTACHMENTS)

There are many programs in which our schools participate and receive little or no recognition outside of a particular building. Occasionally, the Superintendent will present as an agenda item, “Some Nice Things Happening in Our Schools.” (See attachment.) Tonight, the Board will recognize:

1. Jade Sanders – Roseville High School Senior

Jade Sanders, a senior at Roseville High School has been named the Roseville High School Student of the Year. Jade was recognized at the Salute to Excellence Dinner hosted by the Eastpointe-Roseville Chamber of Commerce on Thursday, October 5, 2023.

Jade was also awarded the National African American Recognition Award (NAARA) by the College Board. She qualified for this award by earning a GPA over 3.5 with outstanding performances on the PSAT, SAT, and Advanced Placement curriculum.

2. Kaylee Lorentzen – Speech and Language Pathologist – Kaiser Elementary

Kaylee Lorentzen serves as the Speech and Language Pathology at Kaiser Elementary and has been awarded a Distinguished Early Career Professional Certificate from the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association for her significant impact on her professional community.

Not only does Kaylee attend professional learning opportunities locally, but she also attends the ASHA conference in Washington, D.C. Kaylee was instrumental in securing a communication board for the playground at Kaiser to allow students an alternate communication opportunity; she serves as teacher-in-charge and assists in many school events/initiatives.

3. Vernard Snowden – Roseville High School Coach, and Student/Parent Liaison
Roseville Citizen of the Year

Vernard Snowden has been named the Roseville Citizen of the Year by the Eastpointe-Roseville Chamber of Commerce. He was recognized at the annual Salute to Excellence Dinner held in October.

As a coach, mentor, and student/family liaison, Vernard promotes a positive school culture. He inspires students to work hard and take pride in their accomplishments, both in the class and on the field, leading the varsity football team to district championships.

Vernard also works to make connections in the workforce and with college level coaches to advocate for student success, ensuring students have a path available upon graduation. This, along with his tireless commitment, have made him a very valuable asset to Roseville Schools.
