Restorative Programs

Roseville Middle School has adopted Restorative Justice as a model for helping students to accept responsibility for and to improve their behavior. When students choose to act in ways which are disruptive to the educational process or which interfere with their own education, the Restorative Justice system is utilized. Below is a small list of the different aspects of the Restorative Justice system used at Roseville Middle School.

- |                                 |                           |

| Restorative Justice Conferences | Restorative Service Hours |
| Positive Peer Group             | Positive Peer Mentoring   |
| Restorative Justice Mentoring   | Hallway Hero Program      |

Homeroom

Every student at Roseville Middle School begins their day with a 40-minute Homeroom period. Homerooms are designed to support a student's academic needs based on their abilities. Homerooms include Corrective Reading, Math Attack, Writing in the Content Area, Advanced Scientific Processes, Intro to Engineering, and Advanced Humanities options.

Student Supports

Roseville Middle School uses a variety of resources to support all students. Opportunities for accelerated learners or additional support include Intervention Specialists, Literacy Coach, Parent Liaison, Data Coach, Hallway Hero recognition program, and Measures of Academic Progress (MAP) testing three times per year to ensure their needs are being met.

Technology

Roseville Middle School is one of the most technologically sophisticated schools in Macomb County. We are proud that advanced technology is in use in all curricular programs.

Roseville Middle School has wireless internet throughout the building, six permanent computer labs, iPads available for every student to use during the school day, and a variety of enhanced interactive classroom technology programs and devices.

Staff

Roseville Middle School teachers meet all State of Michigan requirements for the positions to which they are assigned.

RMS Mission Statement

The mission of Roseville Middle School, in partnership with students, community, and home, is to develop contributing members of society and life-long learners prepared to meet the challenges of the future.
